The Inspection Period shall be extended automatically on a day for day basis for each day following the Effective Date that the right of entry is not in effect; provided, however, in any event, the Inspection Period shall not be automatically extended for more than sixty (60) days. The Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause any such inspections to be performed in a manner so as not to unreasonably interfere with the business of the Tenant at the Improvements. To the extent that the Purchaser damages or disturbs the Property in connection with any such inspections or investigations, the Purchaser shall return the Property to substantially the same condition that it was in immediately prior to such damage or disturbance. The Purchaser shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless NJEDA, CCURLP and the Tenant from and against any and all liabilities, losses, claims, demands, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and litigation costs), liens and judgments of any nature arising from or in connection with any injury to, or death of, any person, or loss or damage to property caused by Purchaser's entry onto the Property or any activities conducted on the Property by Purchaser's representatives, agents or contractors, except to the extent that such expense, loss or damage arises out of any act or negligence of NJEDA, CCURLP or the Tenant or the mere discovery of any pre-existing condition at the Property. During the Inspection Period and thereafter until the Closing or the earlier termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Purchaser shall maintain public liability and property damage insurance insuring against any liability arising out of entry on to or inspections of the Property by Purchaser or its representatives, agents or contractors, which insurance shall (a) be in the amount of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) combined single limit for injury to or death of one or more persons in an occurrence, and for damage to tangible property (including loss of use) in an occurrence; and (b) name NJEDA, CCURLP and the Tenant as additional insureds. The provisions of this Section 3.1(a) shall survive the termination, expiration of or closing under this Agreement, provided Purchaser's indemnity shall expire as of the date of termination or closing except for claims for which Seller has provided Purchaser notice within twelve (12) months after such termination or closing.

(b) Diligence Deliverables. Within two (2) Business Days following the Effective Date, the Seller shall deliver to the Purchaser copies of the following items and materials: the Lease, the Seller's most recent title insurance policy for the Land and Improvements together with all of the exception documents referred to therein (to the extent such exception documents are in the Seller's possession or control), the Seller's most recent survey of the Land and Improvements, all existing environmental reports with respect to the Land and Improvements (to the extent such environmental reports are in the Seller's possession or control), and all existing engineering reports with respect to the Land and Improvements (to the extent such engineering reports are in the Seller's possession or control). In addition, the Seller shall deliver to the Purchaser copies of any other items reasonably requested by the Purchaser to the extent the same are in the Seller's possession or control. Purchaser acknowledges that as to some of the foregoing items and materials, Seller will need to obtain the same from the Tenant and Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the same.

(c) Feasibility and Financing Analysis. Seller acknowledges that during the Inspection Period, Purchaser's due diligence examination may include programmatic feasibility, the status and prospects of leasing (including solicitation of New Leases, as provided in Section 8.1(c)) and an analysis of financial alternatives available to Purchaser, including consultation with the City of Camden as to execution of a new Financial Agreement with the City of Camden with respect to the Property. Purchaser shall advise Seller from time to time during the Inspection Period of its progress in securing financing for the purchase, Purchaser endeavoring to provide evidence of such financing within forty-five (45) days following the date upon which the Purchase Price shall have been established, approved and agreed upon by the parties.

(d) Termination of Agreement. If the results of the inspections performed by or on behalf of the Purchaser pursuant to this Section 3.1 shall be unsatisfactory to the Purchaser in any respect, or if the Purchaser otherwise determines not to proceed to Closing, in each case as determined by the Purchaser in its sole and absolute discretion, the Purchaser shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at any time on or prior to the expiration of the Inspection Period by giving written notice thereof to the Seller and the Escrow Agent, whereupon the Deposit shall be refunded to the Purchaser and neither party shall have any further obligations to the other hereunder, except for the Surviving Obligations. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 3.1(d), then upon the Seller's request, (i) the Purchaser shall return to the Seller all copies of the items and materials delivered to it pursuant to Section 3.1(b) or certify to the Seller that such items and materials have been destroyed.

The Purchaser shall instruct each of the Title Company and the surveyor to deliver copies of the Title Commitment and the Survey to the Seller.

(b) Title and Survey Review. Not later than fifteen (15) Business Days prior to the expiration of the Inspection Period, the Purchaser shall notify the Seller of any matters identified in the Title Commitment or shown on the Survey which are objectionable to the Purchaser in its sole and absolute discretion. If, for any reason, the Seller is unable or unwilling to take such actions as may be required to remedy such matters, the Seller shall give the Purchaser notice thereof, it being understood and agreed that the failure of the Seller to give such notice within five (5) Business Days after receipt of the Purchaser's notice of objection shall be deemed an election by the Seller to remedy any such matters. If the Seller shall be unable or unwilling to remedy any matters as to which the Purchaser has objected, the Purchaser may elect either (i) to terminate this Agreement by notice given to Seller prior to the expiration of the Inspection Period, whereupon the Deposit shall be refunded to the Purchaser and neither party shall have any further obligations to the other hereunder, except for those obligations which expressly survive the termination of this Agreement or (ii) to proceed to Closing in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, notwithstanding such matter and without any abatement or reduction in the Purchase Price on account thereof, and upon the failure to give a termination notice, each such matter shall be deemed to be a Permitted Encumbrance.

(c) Title Affidavits, Etc. At the Closing, the Seller shall execute and deliver such usual and customary affidavits as the Title Company may reasonably require, including, without limitation, a seller's title affidavit in such form as will permit the Title Company to issue the Title Policy without exceptions for parties-in-possession (other than the Tenant under the Lease, as tenants only, with no purchase options or rights of first offer or refusal to purchase) or mechanic's liens.

3.3 ISRA Compliance. Purchaser shall, during the Inspection Period, comply with the requirements of the Industrial Site Recovery Act ("ISRA") N.J.S.A. 13:1k-6 et seq. and the implementing New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection ("NJDEP") regulations by having a Licensed Site Remediation Professional engaged and paid for by Purchaser review the property and issue its report confirming that remediation action is not required by ISRA in order to complete title closing. If Purchaser's Licensed Site Remediation Profession concludes that remediation is required under ISRA, Purchaser may either terminate this Agreement pursuant to Paragraph 3.1(d) above or Purchaser and Seller may negotiate a mutually agreeable arrangement either (i) for having Tenant complete the required ISRA remediation, if Tenant is responsible under the terms of the Lease or (ii) for having Seller complete the required ISRA remediation (or causing Campbell Soup Company ("CSC") to do so pursuant to the CSC Agreement, as that term is defined in Section 6.2 of the Lease. This Agreement shall not in any way affect the jurisdiction of NJDEP over the Property.
